

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

— OR —

A convenient form for ~~cataloguing~~ ^{recording} books that one wishes to read or recommend to others, recording the ~~title, author,~~ ^{title, author,} publisher, price and the names of persons who recommend the books: classified according to general subjects, e. g. Hist., Eng. Lit., etc.

Every one who reads books constantly hears of books he wishes to read but which he cannot when he first hears of them, either from lack of time or inability to get the desired book. Even though one has the money the book may not be immediately available. All students, and especially those attending lecture courses, keep some kind of memoranda of books they wish to read. The advantage to such of cataloguing the books they wish to read, in a blank book properly arranged for that purpose, rather than using loose sheets, is evident. To a person taking books from a library such a book is almost a necessity, there being the further advantage that the library numbers of books may be kept for reference.

"BIBLIOGRAPHY" contains in 50 double pages, room for recording 1000 books. The columns are so arranged that as much or as little space as one pleases may be used for each book. Pages are left for an index which in the nature of the case each person must make for himself. For example, one might want to use pages 1-10 for History, 10-15 for Eng. Lit., and so on. Or the classification might be by author, or on any principle that circumstances might require.

Price : 50 page book, cloth binding, 50 cents.

Sent by mail post paid upon receipt of price.
